

Dear Parents,

I am the author of a historical fiction series with an element of fantasy titled Michigan History Nightmares. My books are written as supplements to the Michigan history curriculum. As a former elementary school teacher, my goal is to excite students about reading and writing with personal stories and tips that I have developed during my career as a writer.

Today I had the opportunity to speak to the children in the upper grades at your child's school. If you would like your child to have a book signed by me or to order books for gifts, please complete and return this form with payment to your child's teacher. I will sign and personalize each book. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Take a wild journey through history in this action-packed children's series, Michigan History Nightmares (vol. 1) Trapped in the Lower Peninsula/A Narrow Escape in the Upper Peninsula. Following a nightmare in which Katie finds herself trapped inside of a glacier she wakes up for her first day of third grade with a funny feeling that something quite unusual is about to happen. Will her frightening dream soon become a reality?

Michigan History Nightmares (vol.2) Entombed in a Hopewell Burial Mound/A Shocking Encounter with the Iroquois and Three Fires American Tribes
Unlike most kids, Katie's nightmares don't end when she wakes up. Lately her bad dreams have sent her places other Michigan kids only learn about in books. For Katie and her friends, including the mysterious new kid, Zach, Michigan History is about to get real once again.
